

Who me?

Can you match up the comments with the pictures? Which most describes you?

I know it's hard, but I will try to tell my friends about Jesus

I only think about Jesus at Backpackers week

I don't need to pray any more – I have everything I want

I don't like being teased for going to church – I don't want to go any more

I can never remember anything that I learn at Backpackers

I don't need Jesus – my life is just fine as it is

I stick with Jesus – he is the friend I can really trust

My friends don't believe in Jesus – so I won't either
